Hall of Honor Nominations

Mission Statement

The KHE Hall of Honor recognizes the achievements and contributions of KHE faculty, former students, and friends of the Department of Kinesiology & Health Education at The University of Texas and to the professional fields related to physical activity and health promotion. Induction into the Hall of Honor—the highest honor bestowed by the KHE Department—will be based on a demonstration in one or more specific areas of leadership, professional involvement, service, and academic research achievement.

Hall of Honor Criteria

A person may be inducted into the HOH via the designation of any of the criteria shown below. Induction into the Hall of Honor may only occur once, and the inductee may not have held an appointment nor have been a student in the department for the previous three years.

- Distinguished Faculty: Achieved national prominence (during professional career); Contributed significant and long time service to KHE or state/national professional organization. Must have been a KHE faculty member for at least five years.
- Distinguished Alumnus/Alumna: Former student who has achieved prominence and made significant contribution to the field of physical activity and/or health (broadly defined) at the state, national, or world level.
- Community/State/National Contributor: Contributed substantial and significant support to the Department of Kinesiology & Health Education at The University of Texas at Austin and/or the profession of kinesiology and/or health.

Instructions for Preparing the Nomination Packet

Nomination to the Kinesiology & Health Education Hall of Honor is a two-step process. First, the brief form below must be completed and submitted to Dr. Jan Todd by the due date listed on the HOH website.

http://www.edb.utexas.edu/education/departments/khe/about/hoh/

The Hall of Honor Committee will review the nominations and select a short list of candidates. The HOH committee will request additional information/materials if the nominee is selected for further review. Formal induction will occur during the annual Alderson Lecture in late March/early April.

Nominations must be submitted to:

Dr. Jan Todd, Chair Hall of Honor Committee
